Sua Magestade o Imperador chegou ao meio dia: e do seu Throno dirigio a assembléa e Discorso do teor seguinte:

"Augustos e Dignissimos Representantes da Nação Brasileira: A segunda vez Tenho o prazer de apresentar-vos, abrindo

Impressão em 1808

"na Assembléa Nacional. Sinto infinito a que se não abraza no dia marcado para a Constituição, depois do Governo ter con-siderado da sua parte quanto pôde, para a realização que a Lei não fosse postergada. Em dez de Novembro de mil oitocentos e vinte e tres Dissolvi a Assembléa Constituinte, bem a Meu pesar, e por motivo, que vos não são desconhecidos. Prometti ao mesmo tempo hum Projecto de Constituição: este foi accepto e jurado, e hoje he a Constituição Politica do Imperio, e em violação da qual se acha reunida esta Assembléa.
 A harmonia, que se pode desejar entre os Poderes Politicos, tranclur nesta Consti-tuição de melhor modo possível. Todo o Imperio está tranquillo, excepto a Provincia do Rio de Janeiro. A continuação deste reyno, a necessidade do Sistema Constitu-tucional, e a importância, que Eu Tenho, que o Imperio seja regido por elle, imita a que haja tal harmonia entre o Senado e a Assembléa Legislativa, entre esta e o Governo, e entre o Governo e as Assembléas Municipaes, que faça com que todos se capta-rem que as resoluções não proviém de sentas mãos, mas de aquelles, que a somma de todas as partes he por em pratica os seus fins partiaes. A Provincia do Rio de Janeiro

"he a unica, que não estã em secego, como já disse; pois homens ingratos, e que muito de viao as Brazil, contra elle se levantarao, e se achão apoiados pelo Governo de Buenos Ayres, actualmente em luta contra nós.
 A Honra Nacional exige que se sustente a Provincia Cisplatina; pois esta jurada a In-tegridade do Imperio.
 A Independencia do Brazil foi reconhe-cida por elleu Augusto Pay o Senhor Dom Joã Septo, de Gloria e memoria, em o Dia 15.
